

The Nunavut Association of Municipalities (NAM) is hiring an Assistant Executive Director (AED). As the AED you are to perform the duties of the Executive Director in their absence, while focusing on providing support to the Senior Administrator Officers across Nunavut. This later item involves developing a procurement program, maintaining a municipal data base, and working with the Nunavut Association of Municipal Administrators (board). A strong municipal background is required to perform in this position. A competitive salary is offered, including northern living allowance, housing subsidy if renting, and pension and health benefits. Resumes, a job description and other inquiries can be addressed to the Executive Director at:
